Hall, duly seconded, and carried by a voice vote of 13 to 0 (Committee Members L. Craig, G. Ochoa and S. Pfund absent.), to accept the Financial Report.

8. Committee Reports

a. Southern Arizona VA (Veterans' Affairs) Health Care System

Committee Member L. Johnson briefed the Committee on upcoming events within the VA Hospital. He reported and distributed handouts on the following: Census Bureau is currently hiring Veterans; May 13-17, 2019 is National Prevention Week at the VA Hospital. Various resources would be available each day. Wednesday, May 15, 2019 there will be a Woman Veterans Health Clinic open house as well as a VA2K "Walk-&-Roll", and on Friday, May 17, 2019 a movie night will take place. Refreshments will be served and entertainment provided prior to the movie. He also updated the Committee on changes to the VA Healthcare. He stated that Optical Service would no longer be staffed by contractual employees and would now be operated by VA staff. He also discussed the VA Mission Act of 2018, which is due by June 6, 2019. He distributed a fact sheet and briefly discussed with the Committee some of the major changes within the VA Mission Act.
